Logline:

While preaching on the streets, David Mahabola declares, "There's no pathway to Heaven that goes as you please—the only True Way is through the Lord Jesus Christ, like it or not."

Synopsis:

Oppressed and persecuted on all fronts—emotionally, spiritually, and physically—the man of God stood defiant against the rulers of this world. They banned him from preaching, not only in his own home but even across neighbouring countries. Threats to his life came often, yet every morning he rose without fear, boldly proclaiming the Gospel in the streets. His message was unwavering: "There is no truth or freedom in this world. What we see with our eyes is an illusion. True peace and freedom can only be found through the Son of God."

MAIN CHARECTORS

Sipho Radebe is a quiet, gentle man living in Ext 7B, Orange Farm, a township in the south of Johannesburg. He began his acting journey in 2017 with PK 65 Film Productions' first project, Tee Em El—a title derived from the word Tumelo, meaning Faith in English. The film went on to win an award in India, marking a strong debut for both the Production Company and Radebe.

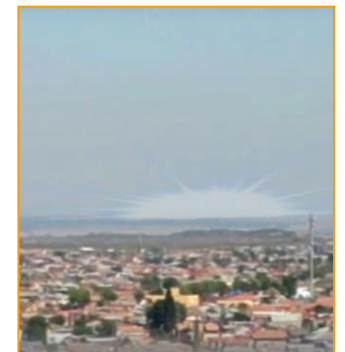

In 2020, he took on the role of businessman Justin Makhubu in Hard to Do Good, a powerful film that garnered 19 international awards and continues to make waves globally.

Now, in his third film True Way, Sipho Radebe stars as Pastor David Mahabola, a man on a mission to deliver a bold and honest message to the world. With a compelling storyline and a performance rooted in truth, True Way is poised to resonate deeply with audiences worldwide.

Sindi Mokoena is a mother of two, living in Stretford Ext 3, in the south of Johannesburg Township. She has appeared in two films produced by PK 65 Film Productions—Tee Em El and Hard to Do Good—portraying the character Clara Kofa.

In her latest role in True Way, Sindi takes on a powerful and transformative character: a woman who initially stands against the will of God, persecuting and torturing Christians. However, as the story unfolds, her heart is changed, and she ultimately accepts the Lord Jesus. Her performance delivers a compelling journey of resistance, conviction, and redemption.

DIRECTORS STATEMENT

Pereko Mosia

(Director, Producer & Writer)

Many years ago, the world cried out for peace, and it continues to do so today. Yet, there's one thing we don't understand: there is no truth in this world; we are living in lies. If you tell the truth, you die. 'The True Way' movie portrays exactly what we are living through in this world. David Mahabola, the main character in this film, was persecuted for telling the truth. No one loves him because he is born of God and spreading the good news of the Lord, doing what God wants us to do. Nobody is obligated to accept the Lord Jesus, yet the world hates Him for no reason. Everyone knows He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life."

Katleho Mosia

(Director and Producer)

The younger generation wants to know what's going on, why we live in lies, and where the truth is. Mothers and fathers don't tell the truth because they've grown up being prohibited from knowing it. Jesus was Black, and the pathway to the Kingdom of God goes through Him. We can no longer hide the truth. 'The True Way' is a powerful film that reveals the truth to many people.
